

1750 ELLIS AVENUE
SUITE 500
JACKSON, MS 39204
WWW.WMIB.ORG
(601) 371-1427

Media Alert

Media Contact: Sonya Steward (601) 371-1427 or wemakeitbetterfoundation@gmail.com

FOUNDATION TO HOST TRANSFORMATION CONFERENCE

(September 8, 2014 – Jackson, Mississippi) - The We Make It Better Foundation will host its inaugural More Money and Transformation Conference for Churches and Nonprofits. This one-day conference will take place on Friday, September 26, 2014 at New Horizon Church International, 1750 Ellis Avenue - Jackson, Mississippi.

Schedule:

5:00 p.m. - WMIB Foundation Networking Party

- Featuring the Creole & Cajun Style Products of renowned Chef Joe Durio of New Orleans, Louisiana.

6:15 p.m. -Breakout Sessions

- Home Ownership and Financial Literacy – Presented by Mississippi Faith-Based Coalition for Community Renewal
- How to start a 501(c)(3)? How to become grant worthy? – Presented by WMIB Foundation
- What type of insurance should a nonprofit or religious institution buy? Are we protected? – Presented by the Dear Group

“We exist to make life better for all through philanthropy, fundraising, community activism, and transformation.”

, Dear Group and We Make It Better Foundation. The conference will continue at 7 p.m. with the Keynote Speaker for the evening, our founder and CEO Bishop Ronnie C. Crudup, Sr. "It is our goal to expose and encourage the community to become more fiscally sound, as individuals and organizations." says Stacia V. Hunter, Executive Director of the We Make It Better Foundation. "Therefore, bringing forth a greater awareness of possible community transformation."

The We Make It Better Foundation exists to make life better for all through philanthropy, fundraising, community activism, and transformation. Some of our conference topics include: "How to be a Good Steward", "Home Ownership and Financial Literacy", and "How to Bring Social and Economic Change to Your Community." This event is free and open to the public. Please register on-line at www.wmib.com. For more information on this event, please contact (601)371-1427, ext. 314.

###

"We exist to make life better for all through philanthropy, fundraising, community activism, and transformation."